

Acknowledgements to Funders and Team Members (168 words)

We want to thank all the people in the various teams in both India and Dhaka who helped in the projects, notably the Gender Norms project 2014-7. This book chapter is one of the synthesising write-ups. The projects listed are all promoting and innovating in mixed methods of analysis as well as multiple methods of data collection.

2020 grant: Social-Action Messages to Reduce Transmission of COVID-19-19 in North India, Prof Wendy Olsen PI, Dr Arek Wisniowski Co-PI, Prof Amaresh Dubey Co-PI, Dr. Purva Yadav Co-PI, Research England / Global Challenges Research Fund, £27K.

2019 grant: Charters for Better Work Better Lives: An Indian Partner Network, Research England / Global Challenges Research Fund, £34K.

2014-7, PI Olsen, Innovation in Global Labour Research Using Deep Linkage and Mixed Methods, British Academy, PM140147, £25K.

2014-7, PI Olsen, Gender Norms, Labour Supply and Poverty Reduction in Comparative Context: Evidence from Rural India and Bangladesh, Economic and Social Research Council and DFID, ES/L005646/1, £303K funded by ESRC.